AT PARIS ISLAND

LT. BARDIE LEE RAMSEY

ORTIE THEATER WED-THURSDAY "APACHE TRAIL"

Screen newcomers are aided and abetted by experienced favorites in Metro-Goldwyn Mayer's "Apache Trail" which opens Wednesday and Thursday at Ortie Theater.

William Lundigan, Donna Reed and Ann Ayers are the promising film freshmen, while Lloyd Nolan, Chill Wills and Grant Withers are familiar favorites in this tale of the Old West.

The story, from Collier's magazine yarn, "Stage Station," by Ernest Haycox, centers around the Ton-to Valley stage station, where Tom Follard (played by Lundigan) is attempting to redeem himself, as manager after his brother, Peso Bill (Nolan) had involved him in a hold-up.

Resigned by Indians

The travelers on the stage are besieged in the station by a band of marauding Apaches. The passengers include Miss Ayers as a widow, who sets her charms to captivate the manager of the station.

Peso Bill seeks refuge in the station after killing several Apaches and stealing their ceremonial pipe. Attempting to regain the pipe, the Apaches attack several times but are repulsed. They are massing for another attack when "Peso Bill" gives himself up to save the lives of those within the station.

The love interest is well supplied by Lundigan and Miss Reed, who plays Rosalie, daughter of the Spanish cook of the station.

Richard Thorpe's direction keeps the action moving at a rapid rate. Sam Marx produced. It's a grand action picture, entertaining from start to finish.

HANCOCK AND HARRISON COUNTIES IN JOINT MEETING

Of Red Cross Chapters At Gulfport, April 21st

A joint meeting of Hancock and Harrison county chapters of the American Red Cross was held last Wednesday, April 21st at Gulfport, Field, to formulate plans for the organization of a Camp and Hospital Council, with the following persons from Bay St. Louis representing the Hancock County Chapter: Mrs. Louis Maumus, Executive Secretary, Harold B. Weston, Chairman of Camp and Hospital Council and Mrs. Leo W. Seal, Volunteer Special Service Chairman. Daniel Vaughn, Field Director of the American Red Cross at Gulfport Field presided, and also attending were Miss Mary Alice Willis, General Field Representative of the Eastern Area of American Red Cross, and several morale officers stationed at the Base represented the military.

The military officers gave a list of the needs in equipment to furnish the day rooms and a representative of Red Cross furnished a list of equipment needed in the hospitals.

On Wednesday, April 28th, a meeting of representatives of a number of civic and church organizations met at the Courthouse to formulate plans for local organization of Camp and Hospital Council.

It was explained at this meeting that the purpose of the Council is to permit service, equipment and supplies which may be necessary to carry out the responsibilities of the Army and Navy to be furnished by outside organizations, the acceptance of which must come through the American Red Cross.

Hospitals have priority in securing equipment necessary to their maintenance.

Camp and hospital service councils act as channels through which organizations other than Red Cross may participate according to their desires and donate equipment to furnish hospital rooms, recreation rooms, athletic equipment or anything adding to the comfort of soldiers at an army or navy camp. Donations may be given in memory of persons, and plaques or identification markers stipulating the name of the individual or organization making the donation may be placed on the articles.

It was arranged at the meeting for groups of persons representing the organizations who become members of the Council to visit the hospital and different buildings of Gulfport Base in order that they more clearly understand the definite needs there, and representatives are urged to make these visits, which of course have to be pre-arranged through the Council.

At the Bay St. Louis meeting, Mrs. George R. Horton was named secretary-treasurer.

Miss Edwards is a charter member of the Gulfport Branch of the N. L. A. P. W.

WAR BOND DRIVE OVER TOP

Bonds in Amount of $158,070.00 Sold to Date—To Exceed Quota of $137,000.00

Chairman Jos. O. Mauffray of the Hancock County Second War Bond Drive Committee reports that Hancock County has gone over the top and has exceeded its quota by more than $21,000, with still some reports to come in.

We are, indeed, happy to have this report and to know that our quota has been reached. The total bonds purchased to date is $158,070.00. Our quota for the county is $137,000.00.

Hancock County has always come to the front in its war effort. The amount of $137,000 appeared at first to be very large. This was met before the deadline with quite a bit of margin, and we might safely say that this margin will be considerably increased before Friday night, April 30th.

Mr. Mauffray was high in the praise of his co-workers who helped so diligently in putting over the drive. We especially want to mention the work of the Waveland Committee who far exceeded the quota allotted to them. It is truly remarkable how a small group of people banded together with one motive in mind can accomplish the seemingly impossible when they set out to do it.

The people of our county are to be congratulated for the interest they have shown in this drive, and we feel that they can truthfully say to the boys on the fighting front that they are back of them 100 per cent.

The members of the Junior Red Cross Chapter at Bay High School under the direction of Miss Mellie Spoto recently completed three dozen nut cups and five dozen book marks which were sent to soldiers in the hospital at Keesler Field as Easter gifts from the Juniors.

The nut cups and book marks were artistically designed and beautifully made and this group of children are now working on scrap books and crossword puzzles for the boys in service.

Washington, D. C. requests for Red Cross aid to servicemen and their families through Home Service units in local chapters have jumped more than 700 per cent over the average at this time last year according to reports received.

On May 20th, from nine until five o'clock, Dr. J. W. Davenport, Jr., of the Southern Baptist Hospital in New Orleans will be in Bay St. Louis to conduct a blood bank and everyone who has a blood bank and blood donor is requested to be on hand to donate blood for use in the local hospital and for use of our armed forces.

With the many emergencies served, you may be donating blood for a transfusion which a member of your family may require in the event of a casualty in the home, in school or on the street.

A group of faithful workers among the ladies who live in Waveland have served in the Red Cross sewing room and in the Surgical Dressing Room of the Hancock Chapter of the American Red Cross since their inception. These women have been faithful in serving every day that they volunteered to despite automobile tire and gasoline rationing, inclement weather, etc., and coming from the distance they do, they deserve special credit.

Knitters of sleeveless sweaters and women to sew garments are always needed at the Production Room.

TO ENTER SERVICE

Robert Johnson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of this city left Thursday morning to enter the United States Army. For the present he will be at Camp Shelby where he went for induction last week.

Young Johnson is a graduate of St. Stanislaus, has attended Loyola University and was engaged in defense work when he volunteered for service in the Army.

COMMANDER ANDREWS TRANSFERRED TO KINGS POINT, N. Y.

Succeeded By Commander Dodson at U. S. Merchant Marine Base School

The War Shipping Administration has announced the assignment of Commander Hugh H. Andrews, USNR, commanding officer of the U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Basic School at Henderson Point, to the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, Long Island, New York, where he will serve as Administrative Officer.

Commander B. M. Dodson, USNR, replaces Commander Andrews at the local Cadet School. Commander Dodson was previously U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Instructor for the Atlantic Coast Area, with headquarters in New York City.

Commander Andrews took command of the Gulf Coast base in October, 1942, shortly after the War Administration acquired the Lumbago six new buildings have been constructed, with two more nearly completed, providing a permanent station for the Gulf Area which accommodates 300 cadets in training to become merchant marine officers.

Commander Andrews, in his new assignment, will serve with Captain Giles C. Stedman, commandant of First Officer when Captain Stedman was in command of the SS America, largest passenger vessel built in this country.

Commander Dodson has been identified with the merchant marine training program since 1936, when he was appointed navigator and instructor aboard the California Maritime Academy's Training Ship, Golden State. He was in command of this vessel in 1941 on his cruise to South America. He was commended by the U. S. Ambassador to Peru for excellent services rendered during his ship's stay at Lima.

In 1941 he was aboard a Naval transport which spent most of its time in Alaskan waters. That same year he was appointed commanding officer of the U. S. Maritime Service Training Ship Academy, and in 1942 was made head of the Department of Seamanship and Navigation in the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York, later being transferred to the post of District Cadet Instructor in New York.

Commander Dodson began his sea career in 1926, enlisted in the U. S. Navy in 1928, and the following year was appointed a midshipman in the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He resigned in 1930 to enter the merchant marine, sailing with the U. S. Lines and the Dollar Line in various grades up to second officer on such ships as the President Hoover and the President Coolidge, making the latter ships maiden voyage.

The Officers of the Station entertained Commander Andrews Tuesday night at the Reed Hotel. Commander Dodson joined in the praise of the work that Commander Andrews had done at the base during the past seven months.

Commander Andrews and his family, have become a part of Bay St. Louis and have endeared themselves to all who know them. We wish for him much success in his new assignment and hope that he and his family will always remember Bay St. Louis, and that when this war is won and they are free to go and come, that they will be back with us.

Mr. Alexander Allison Celebrates 92nd Birthday

Mr. Alexander Allison passed his 92nd birthday Wednesday with his sons Alexander Allison, Jr., of New Orleans, Will Allison of Meridian and his daughter-in-law Mrs. Alexander Allison with him. His son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Allison are Missionaries in China.

Mr. Allison has been in the clerical unit of the law firm of Chaffee, McCull, Burns, Toler and Phillips for 30 years and has commuted to and from New Orleans daily until last December. He is very alert and teaches Bible class in the Methodist Church each Sunday and attends church services unless detained at home by illness. He is as deeply loved by the young people of the community as by the adults and no one can imagine a Bay St. Louis without Mr. Allison. He is interested in all current affairs and is always ready to enjoy a good joke.

He had the traditional birthday cake and many of his friends called during the afternoon to wish him happiness and continued health and messages came from the firm some of whom are in the service. Here is a custom to be with him on his birthday but owing to shortage of help in the office and restricted travel they found it impossible to follow that custom.

He is a great lover of flowers and his roses have always been the admiration of all who visited his garden and all day from local friends there were messages and flowers.

Mr. Allison lives his Christianity heart.

"HAPPY GO LUCKY" AT A. & G. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY

For the benefit of film fans who might want to take a pleasure cruise without leaving Blanktown, the A. & G. Theater will next Sunday and Monday present Paramount's funfilm in Technicolor, "Happy Go Lucky," starring Mary Martin, Dick Powell, Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken and Rudy Vallee.

The movie according to advance reports, will move you right out of this humdrum world to a resort island in the Caribbean where laughs, glamour and song combine to banish blues. The five principals are admirably suited to provide the gayety called for by the story of "Happy Go Lucky" which tells of a millionaire-hunting beauty, Mary Martin, and her laugh-provoking trials and tribulations trying to land one. Rudy Vallee plays the one he played so hilariously in "The Palm Beach Story," prince-nez and all.

On the island Mary finds not only millions, but beach boys too, in the persons of Dick Powell and Eddie Bracken. Powell, for reasons of his own, helps her land Vallee although his interest in the lady is anything but platonic. Bracken is once again devoured by the incendiary blonde, Betty Hutton. Fresh on the heels of their triumph in "Star Spangled Rhythm" the two are said to hit even higher spots in "Happy Go Lucky."

BAY ST. LOUIS NURSERY SCHOOL CLOSING TEMPORARILY

The Bay St. Louis Nursery School closed Tuesday temporarily. This present set-up was operated by the WPA and since all agencies operated by the WPA are closing this month it was necessary that we close our Nursery School for a short time. We expect to reopen the Nursery School under the Federal Works Administration within a very short time. In addition to the Nursery School in the Webb School building, there will be one established at the Valena C. Jones School for colored children from 2 to 6 years of age for working mothers.

The primary purpose of these Nursery Schools, as well as the extended school service, is to care for children of working mothers and children of the armed forces. Under the new set-up of the Federal Works Administration we will also have provisions made to take care of, during summer months, boys and girls from 6 to 15 years of age from homes where mothers are working.

Anyone interested in having their children enrolled in either of these groups, the extended school service to 6 or 15, may find out all details relative to this program by consulting S. J. Ingram, Superintendent of City Schools.

All children who were formerly enrolled in the present Nursery School will be entitled to reenter at the beginning of the new program. We feel confident that this program will begin within a very short time and will be a decided advantage to those mothers in Bay St. Louis and adjoining territory who will be engaged in any activity during the day.

Funeral Services For Young Walley Coursey

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon for Walley Coursey, 7 year old son of Mrs. Alfred Besancon who died at Touro Infirmary early Monday morning following a brief illness.

Besides his mother and stepfather he leaves a sister Shirley Ann Coursey.

Walley Coursey had been a pupil of the Taylor School and his illness was sudden.

There was a great wealth of flowers and many of his young friends grieved deeply at his passing.

The Echo extends deep sympathy to his bereaved parents and other relatives.

BUD'S LETTER

I'm right proud of myself today, because I had a good chance to act like a fool and didn't. I heard some guys talking about the govt. and Congress and everything else they could think of. They were beefing about everything. Nothing was right with them fellows. They said our democracy was falling apart—what with ceiling prices, rationing, etc.

Well, I don't say nothing and just amble on home thinking about the things they said. I don't know the definition that Webster gives for Democracy, or even what my wife's brother says it is. After doing a little thinking tho' I know what it meant to me.

Now, Red to me it means a government of, by, and for the people. That means a government that is slow moving because everyone has a hand in it, but it is a people's government. We vote for our representatives from our state, and if we find a mistake has been made the representatives can be removed.

Some people go so far as to say we don't have a voice in it, because the politicians have control of it. All we are interested in is getting elected again, and to do that they give us lousy jobs that are needless. Now that's wrong, because we elect those guys and we are also the one that demand that our representatives give us jobs. Now if we get a crook up there, we can impeach him, so anything that a southeast finds wrong can be traced right back to the people.

A Democracy also means something else to me, equal rights, freedom of speech, free expression by the press, and lastly the right of every person to carve his own monument to leave behind to show for his deeds (or misdeeds).

Now Red, where besides in America could Gen. Walter Krueger become a U. S. Army General, helping to fight the people of his native land? As you know he was born in Prussia and lived there until he was about ten. How about Gen. Eisenhower, and Spaatz? Those names sound a little Germanic, but they are our greatest fighters. Then too, there is Hans von Kaltenborn, one of our greatest news analysts. He has access to practically any war plant in America.

I saw a Zsybysko, Pones, Tekhe-lavich, Krauss, Goldberg, Carrero and Murphy all tied up in a nickel crap game having the time of their lives.

To me, those things make up a Democracy. Its not the land or the factories, but the people. Good people they are Red, and good people demand and have a good government. There is only one kingdom, better than ours—the great Kingdom up above.

SOME ACTION NEEDED

LITTLE did it occur to us that the time would come when there would be such a display of unpatriotic feeling by the people of this country, as is now being exhibited by the United Mine Workers. Little did we ever dream that at a time when this great country is fighting one of its hardest wars that men who are supposed to be leaders would strike at its very existence and lend aid to our enemies by failing to carry on along the production line.

Today the young men of this country are shedding their blood, giving up their lives, that we at home may continue to live a life of freedom; that this great nation might continue to exist under the principles upon which it was founded. And, while these young men are giving their all, here at home we are threatened with a nation-wide walk-out by the United Mine Workers Union. We find today numbers of mines not in operation. We find the President of the United States appealing to John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, that a nation at war needs uninterrupted production, and we find this appeal going unheeded.

Coal is one of the most important factors in production in this nation, and with this fact known to the men engaged in the production of this important commodity, how can they strike and walk out when they know that their work is so important to the welfare of their country? Where is their patriotism? Would they sell their country out for an increase of $2.00 per day in pay? Would not the patriotic step be for them to continue on with their work, so that there would not be a break in the production of the necessary equipment of war, and allow the War Labor Board to adjust the matter of pay?

We believe that the rank and file of the United Mine Workers is merely being led by an egotistical, domineering, unscrupulous leader who would strike at the very bowels of this Government to attain his own selfish ends, and to be in a position to dictate the policies of this nation. This man has been pampered too much by the present administration, and it is no wonder that the request of the President went unheeded.

The manner in which the President and those high in Government administration have submitted to the arrogance of this man is ridiculous, and today when this nation is fighting for all that is worthwhile, this man stands out and defies all constituted authority.

Any righteous cause of the miners, we are certain, will be met with fairness. Little do they need the leadership of a man who could rightly be classed as a traitor to his country. These men, undoubtedly, have boys who are today in the fighting forces, and we are certain that the thought must flash through their minds, that perhaps they will sacrifice the lives of their own sons if they fail to continue to work.

The time has arrived for these men to choose between an unscrupulous leader; a man who has lived and is living off of the fat of the land, earned from the sweat of the brow of the poor working man who trudges his way through a coal mine all day; and who lives in one of the swankiest hotels in the City of Washington; or their country.

It is high time that Congress takes a hand and passes a bill that will take care of men of the type of John L. Lewis, or that this administration will make some effort to bring to a stop the subversive activities of him and his ilk, setting an example that will last for time immemorial. That will give notice that the people will not stand for him, nor any of his kind, to hazard the welfare of the sons of this great nation who are so gallantly fighting to preserve that which we love so well.

It appears that the Administration lacks courage to come face to face with the issue. It appears that they lack the courage to bring to the bar to face charges for his subversive activities, this man, who would have been tried for treason in the time that men were men in this great Republic.

Is it courage that is lacking?

AN ASSET

SOME few days ago Congress considered the appropriation bill for many of the different bureaus and with numerous amendments offered and voted upon, the appropriation for the Farm Security Administration was stricken from the bill.

Little thought has been given to this locally. We doubt if very many people throughout the country know to what extent this will affect Hancock County, and we could probably make the statement without fear of contradiction, that very few people in the County have even given any thought to just how much good, or what benefits we are receiving from the Farm Security Administration, and how important it is to this county that this particular department should continue to exist.

This county is not industrialized and the people in the outlying territory from Bay St. Louis depend quite a bit on small farms for a living. It is well known that in the days gone by, many of the citizens of this county engaged in the very profitable business of making moonshine whiskey. At that time these folks were quite prosperous. However, the day came when these same families throughout the county suffered for want of the bare necessities of life.

Sometime ago in discussion with Federal Judge S. C. Mize, Congressman Colmer and Mr. W. J. Gex, Jr., we expressed a hope that the Department of Agriculture would some day come to the assistance of and attempt to rehabilitate these men who had given up their small farms and had drifted from an honorable method of making a living as taught them by their parents to become engaged in the illicit manufacture of liquor. This day has about reached us. Farm Security Administration today is helping these men in Hancock County who are trying to set themselves back to a normal life by aiding them to purchase dairy cattle and in rebuilding their farms.

Hancock County is today fast becoming one of the best dairy-counties in South Mississippi, and men who at one time felt that they could not make a living other than by manufacturing liquor, are today earning a prosperous living engaged in farming and dairying, teaching their children how to carry on in years to come. The Farm Security Administration means a lot to these folks. It means a lot to Hancock County as a whole because, if the welfare of any of our citizenry is affected, it affects the county as a whole.

The appropriation was defeated in the House of Representatives but we are practically certain that it will be reinserted in the bill by the Senate, and we have the assurance of Congressman Colmer that he will do his utmost to see that this appropriation is made.

We are not in accord with many of the principles of the Farm Security Administration. We do not believe in its colonization projects and what-nots; but we do believe that they are rendering a great service to the small farmers in rural sections of the poorer counties when they lend them financial assistance to help them to rehabilitate themselves, and we feel certain that the records will bear us out, when we say that the Government will not, or is not suffering any financial loss from this enterprise.

NEED YOUR HELP!

Believe me, people, production has got to take some more nip-ups if the fellows in the field are going to do anything about that Victory Day you're all asking for! War is no joke, especially this one! It's a dead earnest matter of planes and tanks and guns, and the only way to get them is through your purchase of War Bonds and your savings which your bank can loan out for war production!—And don't forget that savings accounts and War Bonds are two good ways to insure the future and prevent inflation! See Merchants Bank and Trust Company for both of them!

Calvin W. Fountain Is Commissioned A Second
Lieutenant

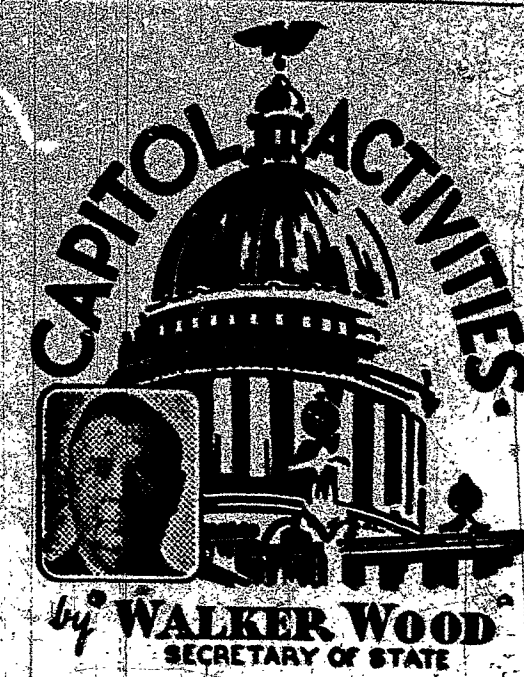

We are in receipt of a news release from Camp Berkeley, Texas that Calvin W. Fountain, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fountain of Logtown, has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant at the Medical Administrative Corps, Officers' Candidate School, Graduation, there.

Leadership, initiative and intelligence are paramount factors in the selection of men from the ranks for attendance at the Medical Administrative Corps Officer Candidate School in the Medical Replacement Training Center here. Upon completion of a 12-weeks intensive training course, the candidates are considered as qualifying for commissions as second lieutenants in the Army of the United States.

The new officers assume non-medical duties of the Medical Administrative Corps, thus relieving doctors and dentists, who previously performed these functions, for professional services with the troops. Supply, transportation, training, personnel, and other administrative tasks are those being performed by the new MAC officers.

Participating in today's graduation ceremonies were Brig. Gen. Roy C. Hellebaker, commandant; Col. Geo. E. Armstrong, assistant commandant; Lt. Col. Charles L. Driscoll, executive officer, and the MRTC band and color guard.

The newly commissioned second lieutenants, following a ten-day graduation leave, will report for their first station assignments.

Makes Good in N. Y.

Robert L. Garner, native Mississippian, born and reared in Bolton, and lived for a number of years in Greenville, is making good in a big way in New York City. Mr. Garner served in World War No. 1 and in 1919 became associated with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York City and remained with that big institution until April first when he resigned to become Vice-President and Treasurer of General Foods Corporation. He is serving on the board of several big concerns in New York and is treasurer of the University Club of New York.

Jackson Population 83,499

J. W. Tucker, who is printing Jackson's new City Directory, states that the 1943 edition of the Directory will show Jackson's population to be 83,499, an increase over the 1942 edition of 7,267. The 1943 book will show 52,327 white people and 31,172 colored as residing in Jackson. The new directory will be out in about 60 days.

Kincaid District Manager

J. E. Kincaid has been appointed district manager of the Jackson district of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. The telephone company is rated as the third largest corporation operating in Mississippi. In Jackson alone the company has nearly 18,000 telephones in daily use.

Delta Food Shortage

The Delta Council, domiciled at Stoneville, has made a survey of the food situation in the Delta within the past few days, and it was found that there is a serious shortage in the supply of dry salt meat and canned milk, meat being about 50 per cent of the needs and canned milk about 25 per cent. They have secured a promise from packers that salt meat shipments will be increased to the Delta to the extent of more than a million pounds a month.

Wagner Back to State

Kennie Wagner, serving a life-term sentence in the Mississippi penitentiary for murder, escaped from Parchman on October 27th, 1940, and had been out since that time, was apprehended and arrested in Virginia, near his old home, on April 16th. He is being returned to Mississippi to resume his prison term.

Extra Session no Certainty

At this writing the extraordinary session of the Legislature is not a certainty. A large number of legislators have not yet replied to Gov. Johnson's letter. Some of those who have replied have not signed the pledge. It seems certain that a majority of both houses will sign the pledge but the mark of pledges might not be sufficient to warrant the Governor in making the call.

Are Large Contractors

The big industrial plants of the United States have rendered a great service to the nation in the production of war material. Of course, they have been well paid for what they have done, but even so they have saved the day for this country. One of the great records in the industrial line has been General Motors, the world's largest automobile plant. In January, 1942, General Motors handled war contracts to the amount of $78,048,424. The steady growth of the business of that company brought the September, 1942, volume of business up to $218,851,360, and the total for eight months of last year was $1,203,849,889.

Raking—

Former Governor Lee M. Russell, who has been confined to his room from illness for some weeks is somewhat improved. The Mississippi State Guard's second regiment now in process of organization has been federally reorganized and will get help from the national government.

Buck Newman has resigned as attorney for the OPA in Mississippi and returned to private practice with the firm he has been with for some time. George Sturm, formerly associated with the Edwards Hotel in Jackson has been elected president of the Biloxi Rotary Club, being now manager of the Buena Vista Hotel in Biloxi. Congressman John Rankin is not well satisfied with the name, "Japanese Cherry Trees" and insists that they should be called "Korean Cherry Trees". It is understood that the War Production Board is conferring with contractors on the matter of erecting two WAAC encampment in the state, at Jackson and Laurel respectively. Mrs. Ellen S. Woodward, member of the Social Security Board of Washington, D. C., will deliver an address in Jackson on April 29.

The proposition of constructing a pipe line from the Tinsley oil field to the state of Georgia and the Atlantic seaboard is again under discussion. It has come to the public now that several of the men with Jimmie Doolittle in his air raid on Tokyo several months ago were captured and murdered, and the United States is thoroughly stirred up about it.

ORTTE THEATER
SUNDAY-MONDAY
"SHADOW OF A DOUBT"Starring Teresa Wright and Joseph Cotten

"Shadow of a Doubt," Alfred Hitchcock's latest suspense-drama, will unquestionably be listed high in any forthcoming index of outstanding motion pictures. The new film may be said to surpass such previous Hitchcock successes as "The Thirty-Nine Steps," "The Lady Vanishes," "Rebecca," "Suspicion" and "Saboteur."

The new Universal film, it should be explained, out-prints its predecessors in human, romantic appeal. This has been accomplished by a very amazing screen play which deals with average American folks in an average American town. Instead of modifying the famous Hitchcock suspense, this simple element has magnified it to the nth degree.

Casting Is Effective

Remarkably effective casting enhances the plot. Teresa Wright and John Cotten are the co-stars portraying respectively a niece and uncle. The niece idolizes this handsome young uncle despite the mysterious circumstances attending his arrival on a visit to the small town family. The niece is the one who tries desperately to shield the family from disgrace when she alone discovers the uncle to be a notorious fugitive murderer. The logical but shocking culmination, as enacted on the screen, is one of the most gripping cinema moments of all time.

Miss Wright's performance is comparable, if not finer, than her work in "Mrs. Miniver" and "Pride of the Yankees." Cotten's difficult portrayal is even more potent than the roles he essayed in "Citizen Kane," "The Magnificent Ambersons" and "Journey Into Fear."

Mrs. Emma Turner Dies
At Her Home in Tyler, Texas

Mrs. Emma Sylvester Turner died at her home in Tyler, Texas, on Friday, April 23 and was buried on Saturday, April 24 at Waynesboro, where her husband is buried. Mrs. Turner, wife of the late Blanks Turner, was a fine Christian character and was one of the founders of the Methodist church here. She was a daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. A. Sylvester who were among the very early residents. She spent her life here up to about 30 years ago when the Turner family moved to Texas and she went there to live.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Emma Turner Cannon of Tyler and Lamisa, Texas, two sons R. J. Turner of Tyler, Texas, and Thomas B. Turner of Beaumont, Texas, several grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

The news of the death of Mrs. Turner was received here with great sorrow by those who remember and loved her. She was one of the type of Christians who lived her Christianity from day to day and it was left by those in her presence. Her type is hard to replace.

Her children were always living examples of her life and they are left to carry on the great work of which she was such a vital part. The Echo extends to the family sincere sympathy.

"It's great to know you're helping!"

"Sure, I know I'm too young to carry a gun and be a Ranger like brother Bill, but I'm helping all the same in every way I know how. Dad told me the other night about the need for cutting down my local 'pt one calls. He said that every telephone line was needed so badly by Uncle Sam that every call I didn't make would help win the war."

"Gee, I didn't know my calls would make any difference, but they sure do. Dad says telephone lines and switchboards are so crowded now that every call I make, to be dead sure is important."

"Mom and Dad, and Sister and the maid, and the whole gang of kids in my neighborhood are now doing a lot less telephoning. Believe me, I want brother Bill back home, and if cutting down on my phone calls will help bring him back—it's sure okay with me."

"How about you? Will you help, too? I bet you will."

The goal of the Second War Loan drive is 13 billion dollars. That is just about one fifth of the estimated increase of the Public Debt for the fiscal year of 1943.

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go on one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten the victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

MRS. CAROLINE DALE SNEDECKER REVIEWS "THE ROBE"

Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedecker reviewed "The Robe" by Lloyd C. Douglas to an appreciative audience at the Episcopal Parish House on Tuesday afternoon.

The book has been a "Best Seller" for months and is still holding the interest of the reading public. It is the story told in fiction of the Centurian who crucified Christ and cast lots for His robe.

Mrs. Snedecker termed it a hereditary book as the author heard Bible stories when young from his father and it is evidently the outcome of his close association from his preacher father that he inherited the stories which make up the book. It took Douglas 30 years to write the book.

Mrs. Snedecker who is such a delightful speaker and has a charm of manner which holds her audience enthralled said that the book is a thrilling book in which the reader gets glimpses of Peter, John and other disciples and sometimes a glimpse of Christ. As she talked the characters came alive and it was easy to follow and live with them. There is a continuity of thought in the book as you follow the characters through such events as the Crucifixion which is told in absence, the stoning of Steven, and many of the events of like interest. Those who were unable to hear this delightful review truly missed a treat.

GOVERNMENT LIFTS RESTRICTIONS ON RE-ROOFING AND RE-SIDING WITH ASBESTOS SHINGLES

Special Ruling Is Made to Meet Critical War Program **

MANY home owners have been postponing re-roofing and re-siding to their homes because of their fear that only temporary materials would be available. Many others have objected to the interest of winning the war.

If your home needs re-roofing, if the sidewalks need painting or repair, a special W. P. B. ruling just issued removes the restrictions on the use of asbestos shingles for this purpose. There is no longer any reason for you to postpone having this work done.

Pre-War Quality — Pre-War Prices

Johns-Manville Asbestos Shingles are manufactured to the same fireproof, durable quality standards as before the war. They are available at pre-war prices, too.

If your home needs painting or repair, we recommend J.-M. Asbestos Siding Shingles. They need no preservative treatment — are fireproof — permanent as stone — and will completely transform the appearance of your home. If you need a new roof, we recommend J.-M. Asbestos Roofing Shingles. They have the same desirable maintenance-free qualities.

Protect your home for today and for the future. We will be glad to show you samples of the new styles and new textures of these colorful shingles.

Long asbestos-spinning fibre is an essential material in many war products. In mining asbestos, for every ton of long asbestos fibre, many tons of shorter fibre must be produced. This shorter fibre must be utilized, and its principal use is in the manufacture of asbestos shingles. Restrictions were therefore lifted to increase the use of asbestos shingles and thereby insure an adequate supply of long asbestos fibre vitally needed for war.

INTERESTING CHAPEL PROGRAM AT BAY HIGH

A very interesting chapel program was given on Thursday morning at Bay High when Miss Mellie Spotorno presented her pupils of the third grade in a play entitled "Fighters for Freedom." The cast included all of the pupils of her room and the young ladies showed good training and did their parts in a very creditable manner for young pupils.

She also presented the following pupils in the play "Mother Bunny's Magic Spectacles": Jane Ann Martin, Sylvia Horton, Jerry Register, John Henry Weston, Kenneth McCarty, Mary Lou Soja and Vernon Parker.

—Mrs. Alfred Vassalli had as guests in her home last week her brother Charles Benigno, who has resided in Washington for the last few years and who visited his mother and family prior to his entering the service of this country, and her sister, Miss Rita Benigno, who came from college to be with Charles and the family at Elster.
